

Humanistic Mourner's Kaddish

May the glory of life be extolled.

May the world be blessed with peace, all life hallowed by love and respect.

Let life be blessed, and glorified, exalted and honored.

Though beyond praises, songs, and adorations we may utter, let life be celebrated.

For us, for all Israel, for all people,
may the promise and the gift of life come true.

May peace embrace all of us, all Israel, and all the world.

May peace be granted us, we who mourn,
and be a comfort to all who are bereaved.

(by Rabbi Peter Schweitzer, adapted)

נַעֲשֵׂה שְׁלוֹם בְּעוֹלָם, נַעֲשֵׂה שְׁלוֹם עֲלֵינוּ וְעַל כָּל הָעוֹלָם, וְנֹאמַר אָמֵן.

Na'aseh shalom ba-olam, na'seh shalom aleinu v'al kol ha-olam, v'nomar, amein.

Let us make peace in the world — let us make peace for us and for the whole world, and let us say, “Amen.”
